AMELIA ISLAND CONCOURS ANNOUNCES CHANGES

New Director of Sponsorships & Media Relations Joins Team

JACKSONVILLE, FL; June 27, 2005 -- The Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance Foundation, Inc. announced today that Mollie Case has joined the organization as its new Director of Sponsorships & Media Relations. She takes over for Valerie Brown who recently left the Foundation.

“We are very fortunate to have found someone with Mollie’s skills and experience, particularly in automotive marketing and sponsorship, to take over the reins of this very important and highly visible position,” says Bill Warner, founder and chairman of the Concours. “We are extremely excited with what we can offer our sponsors in the future and our team will be working very hard to give them the best value for their investment.”

Case is a 1998 graduate of the University of North Florida and holds a degree in Business Administration. Prior to joining the Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance Foundation, she was Director of Sponsorship for Axxcess Sports & Entertainment, a firm specializing in sports marketing. While at Axxcess, she was responsible for all aspects of sponsorship for professional athletes and events, and consulted with major corporations and sponsors including Nike, Cadillac, and State Farm Insurance Co. Case was also active in organizing special events for Super Bowl XXXIX held in Jacksonville.

With its unique themes and automotive diversity, the Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance is recognized today as one of the country's top automotive events and celebrated its 10th anniversary in 2005. The Foundation annually presents a check for $100,000 to Community Hospice of Northeast Florida, Inc., bringing the total monies donated to this organization to $1.4 million.

The Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance is one of the nation's most innovative vintage auto shows featuring over 250 rare classics from seldom-seen private collections nationwide. The show is scheduled for March 10-12, 2006, on the grounds of The Ritz-Carlton. For more information, visit www.ameliaconcours.org or contact them at 904-636-0027.
