AMELIA ISLAND CONCOURS d'ELEGANCE PROGRAM WINS DUAL INTERNATIONAL AUTOMOTIVE MEDIA WRITING AWARDS

Amelia Island Concours Chief Judge William Jeanes has won a gold medal and a "Best of Magazines" award for writing at the 22nd annual International Automotive Media Awards with his remembrance of the late David E. Davis, Jr. The piece appeared in the program of the 17th annual Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance in 2011.

David E. Davis, Jr. was part of "The Amelia" from the beginning in 1996, serving as a judge and often a guiding light. He was, exactly as Jeanes wrote in his award-winning piece, "larger than life" and did "nothing less than change the paradigm for car magazines and raise the standards for all enthusiast magazines."

William Jeanes was David's friend, co-conspirator, confederate, and sometime competitor, and his own career at Car and Driver, Road & Track, and Automobile continually brought him into the Davis orbit.

"I've always been proud of our concours program and the very talented people who design and write it," said Bill Warner, founder and Chairman of the Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance.

"As William wrote, 'He was not always a gentle man, but he was forever a gentleman.' The greatest compliment that I can pay William for both his gold medal and the Best of Magazines award is to say that David E. would likely agree and approve."

About The Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance

Now in its second decade, the Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance is among the top automotive events in the world. Always held the second full weekend in March, "The Amelia" draws over 250 rare vehicles from collections around the world to The Golf Club of Amelia Island and The Ritz-Carlton, Amelia Island for a celebration of the automobile like no other. Since 1996, the show's Foundation has donated over $2 million to Community Hospice of Northeast Florida, Inc. and other deserving charities on Florida's First Coast. The 19th annual Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance is scheduled for March 7-9, 2014. For more information, visit www.ameliaconcours.org.
