JACKSONVILLE EXECUTIVE DAVID MILLER JOINS AMELIA ISLAND CONCOURS d'ELEGANCE BOARD

Local insurance executive David Miller has been named to the Board of Directors of the Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance Foundation.

Miller is a Jacksonville native who lives with his wife Monique and their two children in Jacksonville's San Marco neighborhood. He is a graduate of Wolfson High School and Florida State University and is active in community service as a board member of the United Way of Northeast Florida, Leadership Jacksonville and the JCA. He is also a member of the board of directors of the Synovus Bank of Jacksonville.

"This puts together two different things I enjoy," said Miller, "I've always liked cars and I admire the good work the Concours does. And the Concours creates positive recognition for northeast Florida across the country," said Miller. "I'm genuinely looking forward to being a part of that."

Miller (42) is the CEO of Brightway Insurance, a company he founded in 2003. Today Brightway employs 600 people in 115 offices and insures more than 170,000 policyholders.

"David is a natural businessman with a strong sense of community," said Bill Warner, Founder and Chairman of the Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance. "He brings youth plus a fresh and businesslike 'clean screen' perspective to the board."
